NCC cadets adopt and clean village

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Hyderabad: As part of the Union government's 'Swachhata Hi Seva' cleanliness drive, a National Cadet Corps (NCC) team from Loyola Academy Degree & PG College, Alwal , adopted Masireddypalli village in Medchal. The village consists of about 100 houses and has roughly 360 residents.

27 NCC cadets, divided in three teams, visited the village recently to review the condition of the village and conduct a cleanliness drive. The cadets collected garbage, cleaned up drains and cut down extra vegetation and planted saplings. They also visited a few government schools and interacted with local students.

“Those working for the cleanliness campaign will be remembered like freedom fighters in the times to come,” said Lt Umamaheshwar Rao of Loyola Academy.

SWACHHATA HI SEVA MOVEMENT CLEANING OF STATUES AND AWARENESS EVENT DATE: 20/09/2018

The Swachhata Hi Seva is a massive movement that seeks to create a clean India. Cleanliness was very close to Mahatma Gandhi. It is a movement that aims to clean up the streets, roads and infrastructure of small cities, towns and rural areas of India.

To make this movement more successful, Loyola Academy Degree and PG College NCC unit has organised an event on 20th September 2018 in order to clean all the statue nearby the college and created awareness in people stating the importance of cleanliness.

On the other side, The NCC unit have performed a skit in front of the Inigo hall in Loyola Academy Degree and PG College. This was done under the guidance of Cdt. Krishan Kumar at 12:15 pm on the same date. There was a huge crowd who responded to the skit and was well applauded. Father Vice Principal helped in the smooth conducting of the skit and the same skit was performed at Loyola Inter College at 4pm.

SURGICAL STRIKE EVENT

DATE 28/09/2018

A Surgical strike is a military attack which is intended to damage only a legitimate military target, with no or minimal collateral damage to the surrounding structures, vehicles, buildings or the general public infrastructure and utilities. As per the VAC guidelines, it was celebrated in Loyola Degree and PG College where Col. SSS Rizvi was the Chief Guest and Lt. Co Vikram Singh Jhamval was the other Guest.

They were welcomed by the piloting party and gave a salute by the Guard of Honour which was lead by the Rank holders. Lt. Col. Vikram Singh Jhamval had given the cadets a very valuable speech inspiring all the cadets to join the Indian army forces and he also spoke about the attack where 4-5 militants have attacked unarmed people and how Indian army have encountered them by destroying 5-6 of their launching pads. This took place on 28/09/2016 and it has been two years since this happened and he told that every citizen of the country should be proud of the moment. The College Principal Rev. Fr. Dr. P. Anthony have spoken a few words about it and all the cadets were truly inspired by Lt Col. Vikram Singh Jhamval's speech.

It was all a celebration mode and cadets were fortunate enough to celebrate and take part in this kind of a event.
