

B.A. Economics, Public Administration and Computer Applications

We bring the real-world to the classroom, through this Unique Academic Program

- An interdisciplinary course .
- A full-fledged course curriculum that prepares students for Civil Services and for other Public services.
- It enables students to understand the applications of IT in Governance .
- Aims at building a talent pool of well-equipped graduates to serve the nation as administrators at the top level.

How does the course benefits students?

- Value-added graduation degree with an in-depth understanding of Financial, Administrative and IT knowledge with practical lab and personal interaction with the society.
- Periodical visits to Government and Corporate Institutions for the firsthand learning.
- Career aspiration and awareness programs by experts.
- Conferences/Seminars with academics and achievers of civil services to motivate.
- Enhancing analytical skills/teamwork abilities/personality development
- Computer Network & Operating System
- Cyber Laws & Cloud Computing
- Web Technologies & Client Relationship Management
- Artificial Intelligence & Ruby on Rails

What is Unique about LOYOLA'S B.A Economics, Public Administration and Computer Applications

- This program would ensure the spirit of new education policy that aim at starting interdisciplinary courses for the overall benefit of the student.
- A Special features of this program is the collaboration with well noted civil service coaching institution in Delhi ,this early preparation on core papers of UPSC facilitates students to achieve their target as soon as they complete graduation.
- Students graduating from this course will not only gain knowledge in the subject topics but also will learn leadership and communication skills through group discussions and workshops which are essential for the profession .
- Computer Technology incorporated in this program play a pivotal role in the career of students.

LOYOLA
ACADEMY

Employment Opportunities:-

- This three years degree program will help to produce talented young graduates ready to attempt and crack any competitive exams especially UPSC to be in the helm of administration like IAS(District Collectors) IPS(Police Commissioners) IFS(Diplomats of the nation)&IES(Indian Economic Service). .They can also be placed in Planning Board, Ministry of Economic Affairs, National Sample Survey, and other departments of government that need knowledgeable persons in economics. These graduates are also getting Job opportunities as
- Financial Risk Analyst &Data Analyst
- Financial Planner (Banking Sector)
- MNC's in the field of IT
- Teachers in colleges & at University level

Higher Education

Opportunities:-

After graduation, students are eligible to pursue higher education like Post Graduation and Doctorate in Economics, Public Administration , MBA or any other allied program in Computer Science &IT

ADMISSION Eligibility/ GUIDELINES :

Students from all the streams at the Intermediate and +2 level are eligible to apply. A basic knowledge in Current issues and in Computer applications will be an added advantage.